Reflexology Certification This Weekend!

Join us on February 6, 11 and 12 at Fusion School of Natural Health. Lots of hands-on practice with an expert teacher. Certification is through Limestone School of Natural Healing, a Registered School with the Reflexology Registration Council of Ontario. Most students take around 6 months to complete their studies and successfully pass the exams.

Once certified with Limestone, you may join the RRCO and use the legal designation RRPr (Registered Reflexology Practitioner), which is only available and applicable to RRCO members. The RRPr designation is Federally Recognized and is a certification mark protected under trademark laws. You are also eligible for discounted professional and general liability insurance and many other member benefits.

We have students in training looking for feet to practice on too in Kingston and Brockville for a small fee! Please email the School at info@FusionNaturalHealth.com if you would like your name passed onto students.

Ayurvedic Head Massage

We're looking for a location in Ottawa to teach this two day certification course, usually held on a weekend. Dates being held are April 14 and 15, 2012. Please let us know if you have any ideas for locations!

In Kingston we have students looking to practice for a small fee. Please email the School at info@FusionNaturalHealth.com if you would like your name passed onto students.
